Thank you for your fax of 28 March 2007.

Strictly for determination of the preliminary issue (of whether or not there is a binding charterparty contract between the parties and accordingly a binding arbitration agreement between the parties to refer all disputes thereunder to arbitration in accordance with the terms of such charterparty contract), our clients agree to the appointment of Mr Jaya Prakash as sole arbitrator, pursuant to the parties agreement to refer this preliminary issue to ad hoc arbitration.

As regards what and whether any consequences should follow from the determination of the preliminary issue, our clients strictly reserve all their rights, and believe it would be premature to attempt to reach any agreement as to liability or non-liability, if a charterparty contract between the parties is found to exist (which is denied).

Best regards,

Timothy Tan
